Funded Partners: 24 Hr. Power, Inc., 508 Box-Fit, Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro South, Brockton Police Department, Father Bill's and MainSpring WorkExpress, Health Imperatives, Life Transforming Leadership Foundation, Kids Konnect, Safe Corners, Youth Focus, Youth Works/MassHire

Funded by the Executive Office of Public Safety and Security's Office of Grants and Research, the Charles E. Shannon Community Safety Initiative (Shannon) is modeled after the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention's Comprehensive Gang Model. Shannon is a multi-sector approach used to address a community's gang and youth violence problem. Each community receiving Shannon funding demonstrates the presence of risk factors for youth and gang violence. Shannon participants must be between the ages of 10-24 years.

Youth Risk Assessments

62% Youth in danger of engaging in risky LOW-RISK* behavior or gang activity. 26% Youth exposed to the same risk factors MODERATE- as low-risk youth, as well as additional risk factors such as truancy. 12% Youth who are perpetrators or victims of HIGH-RISK* shooting or stabbing violence, and/or are known gang members.

Success Highlight

"A former gang-involved female who became homeless with her child worked with her case manager to set goals and safety plans this year. She left the crew that she has been involved with since 16 and not only obtained stable employment but enrolled and completed school to become a CNA [certified nursing assistant]."

Gang Activity in Brockton

10 Street Gangs 100-150 Active Gang

Members

In 2020, It is estimated that fewer than 10 gangs drive the vast majority of criminal activity in Brockton and that while there are only between 100 and 150 active core gang members (down from 200 in years past), for each one of those, there are 3 youths under the age of 20 willing to do anything to prove themselves and gain power, creating a volatile atmosphere and, it is believed, leading to a rash of convenience store robberies. Home invasions continue to be a preferred method of intimidation and retaliation and there were three gang-related murders in 2020.
